

Missions of the Measurement and Evaluation Committee at the University level

1. Evaluating the educational learning process through measuring the performance indicators.
2. Identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the capabilities, educational programs and tests.
3. Submitting proposals for the establishment of action plans according to the timelines.
4. Providing support to all units of the university with regards to measurement and Evaluation.
5. Following-up the action plans of the measurement and evaluation unit.
6. Developing data collection tools related to the measurement and Evaluation.
7. Preparing reports about the evaluation results to university units for continuous improvements.
8. Measuring to what extent do final exams achieve the learning outcomes?
9. Contributing to the development of faculty members' skills in establishing and developing question banks in cooperation with the Centre of the Academic and Administrative Growth and Development.
10. Contributing to the preparation of self-assessment study in cooperation with colleges, Deanships, departments, centers, offices, and university units.