

Missions of the Website Committee at the University level

1. Superintending the development of the University website.
2. Following-up the websites related to colleges, deanships, and administrative departments to maintain their effectiveness.
3. Communicating the culture that confirms the importance of using and activating the website.
4. Coordinating with E-learning center and providing it with the feedback.
5. Drawing up regular reports and submitting them to the president of the University.