2. Objectives:

Our goals in teaching are to enable our students to read well, to write well, and to think well, and to provide them with appropriate knowledge in the discipline of English language and literature.

5. Learning Outcomes of the Course:

- the reading skills to examine literature from multiple eras, cultures, and genres with critical understanding;
- the ability to express themselves clearly and comprehensively, orally and in writing;
- research skills which enable them to expand, from a variety of perspectives, their own readings of literature and understanding of language;
- an appropriate knowledge of relevant fields within the discipline, including literature; literary history, criticism, and theory; the language structures of modern English and the history of the English language;
- an enhanced appreciation and enjoyment of literature and language

6. Learning Outcomes of the Programme:

The programme aims to prepare competent graduates who are capable of:

1. Describing the basic components and elements of English language related to phonetics, morphology, syntax and semantics.
2. Recognizing the British and American literary works such as drama and novel.
3. Distinguishing the artistic and intellectual trends and movements in the British and American literature.

F112-3, Rev. c
Ref.: Deans' Council Session (03/2018-2019), Decision No.: 14, Date: 15/09/2018

- Course policies are determined by Undergraduate and Postgraduate Degree Regulations and Student Guide

- Policies should be announced during the first meeting.

1. Attendance:

- a. Students must attend all classes of this course.
- b. Any student with absence of 15% of the classes of any course, will be illegible to sit for the final e
- c. Exam and will be given the university zero (35%) in this course.
- d. In the case (b) above, if a student submits an official sick report authenticated by university clinic or an accepted excuse by the Dean of his/her faculty, the student will be considered as withdrawn from the course, and a "W" will be shown in the transcript for this course.

2. Tardiness:

Students are not allowed to come late to classes. Any student coming late will not be allowed to attend the class and he/she will be marked absent.

3. Exams:

1. Failure in attending a course exam other than the final exam, will result in zero mark unless the student provides an official acceptable excuse to the instructor who approves a make-up exam.
2. Failure in attending the final exam will result in zero mark unless the student presents an official acceptable excuse to the Dean of his/her faculty who approves an incomplete exam, normally scheduled to be conducted during the first two weeks of the successive semester.

4. Assignments and Projects:

Assignments and projects should be submitted to the instructor on the due date. Zero mark will be given for late submissions unless the student has an acceptable excuse approved by the instructor of the course.
